Magness letter

Wayne,

Water and ORC have worked together to draft this letter you could consider sending to Tom Magness.

The L A Times is inquiring about whether EPA has yet elevated this navigability analysis. (b)(5) - del berative

? We can talk further upon your return to SF tomorrow. Thanks, Alexis

Establishing and following a clear interagency process for evaluating navigability will minimize misunderstanding and unnecessary public controversy, and will increase the overall efficiency of the jurisdictional determination process. I'm confident we can achieve this level of collaboration and greatly facilitate the government's ability to speak in a unified fashion with regard to these important decisions. I look forward to discussing these matters with you personally and supporting our staffs' ongoing work to refine and improve our regulatory partnership.

Sincerely,

Wayne Natri
